

Chapter 7 Test, Form A

The Jazz Age

DIRECTIONS: Matching Match each item with the correct statement below.

- | | |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| _____ 1. writer who became a leading voice of the African American experience in the United States | A. Bessie Smith |
| _____ 2. first built by the Ford Company in 1908 | B. Marcus Garvey |
| _____ 3. leader of the “back to Africa” movement | C. Charles Lindbergh |
| _____ 4. pilot of the first solo nonstop transatlantic flight | D. Kellogg-Briand Pact |
| _____ 5. composer, pianist, and bandleader whose sound was a blend of improvisation and orchestration | E. Model T |
| _____ 6. payments Germany was required to make as punishment for starting World War I | F. Langston Hughes |
| _____ 7. attempted to outlaw war | G. assembly line |
| _____ 8. agreement to halt production on warships | H. Duke Ellington |
| _____ 9. enormously increased manufacturing efficiency | I. Five Power Naval Limitation Treaty |
| _____ 10. singer who seemed to symbolize soul | J. reparations |

DIRECTIONS: Multiple Choice Indicate the answer choice that best completes the statement or answers the question.

- _____ 11. Warren G. Harding won the presidency by appealing to Americans’ desire to
- become a world power.
 - reform society.
 - repeal Prohibition.
 - return to life as it was before the war.
- _____ 12. Coolidge believed part of his job as president was to make sure the government
- became involved in social reform.
 - interfered with business and industry as little as possible.
 - participated regularly in world affairs.
 - regulated big business in order to stabilize the economy.
- _____ 13. Henry Ford’s system for making cars increased efficiency by
- assigning a team to each car.
 - dividing operations into simple tasks.
 - reducing the number of parts needed.
 - training each worker to do every task.

Chapter 7 Test, Form A cont.

The Jazz Age

- _____ 14. In the early 1920s, the Ku Klux Klan added to its membership by
- A. avoiding scandals and power struggles.
 - B. hiring professional promoters.
 - C. opening membership to all whites, regardless of religion.
 - D. publicizing their support of legitimate political goals.
- _____ 15. John T. Scopes was put on trial for
- A. accepting bribes.
 - B. being a leader of the Ku Klux Klan.
 - C. teaching evolution.
 - D. violating Prohibition laws.
- _____ 16. After World War I, most Americans wanted to avoid future wars by
- A. avoiding involvement in world affairs.
 - B. disbanding the League of Nations.
 - C. excluding Germany from the League of Nations.
 - D. forbidding Germany to rebuild its armed forces.
- _____ 17. The purpose of the Volstead Act was to
- A. ban the teaching of evolution.
 - B. enforce Prohibition.
 - C. limit immigration.
 - D. prohibit lynching.
- _____ 18. In 1922, the NAACP's lobbying efforts influenced the House of Representatives to pass
- A. anti-lynching legislation.
 - B. anti-segregation legislation.
 - C. equal opportunity legislation.
 - D. voting rights legislation.
- _____ 19. Henry Ford was able to cut daily work hours and increase wages due to the success of
- A. the airline industry.
 - B. negotiating with unions.
 - C. public transportation.
 - D. mass production.

Chapter 7 Test, Form A cont.

The Jazz Age

_____ 20. In 1925 Congress passed the Kelly Act, which

- A. trained new pilots.
- B. provided federal aid to build airports.
- C. allocated funds to support Charles Lindbergh.
- D. authorized postal officials to hire private pilots.

DIRECTIONS: Short Answer Answer each of the following questions.

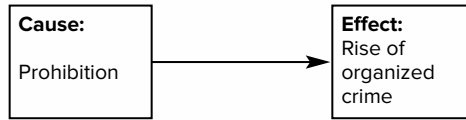

21. Describe the factors that prevented farmers from sharing in the prosperity of the 1920s.

22. Use the diagram to help you explain how supporters of supply-side economics believed that lower tax rates would actually result in more tax money collected.

Chapter 7 Test, Form A cont.

The Jazz Age

23. Explain the relationship depicted in the diagram.

24. Describe the changes in women's lives in the 1920s.

25. Explain how Henry Ford was able to make automobiles affordable for the majority of Americans.
